Not far from Modena is the Ferrari Museum, where Clarissa Travel Club, LLC. has organized a visit and tour. “Live the Dream” is the claim that welcomes visitors, promising a unique and immersive experience. The Ferrari Museum in Maranello focuses on Ferrari’s present and future, while still remaining deeply rooted in the Prancing Horse’s extraordinary history. You will admire a permanent exhibition dedicated to the Formula One and the World Championship, complete with cars and the “pitstop wall” where visitors can gain an understanding of how telemetry affects drivers’ in-race driving behavior, flanked by five rooms that host themed exhibitions with wide ranging appeal. Many other attractions delight visitors; a screening room where themed films are screened on a loop, Formula One simulators, a semi-professional one for adults and a junior one based on an actual Formula One car, the opportunity of tackling a real tire change, mega screens to view Grand Prix action, and a large Ferrari store.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ABOUT ITALY

Italy is a country in South Central Europe occupying a Peninsula that jets deep into the Mediterranean Sea. It is comprised of some of the most varied and scenic landscapes on Earth, often described as a country shaped like a boot. Its broad northern border is defined by the Alps, which are among the most rugged mountain ranges in the world.

WEATHER IN ITALY

Northern Italy expects October temperatures in the low to mid 60's Fahrenheit. Fall comes a little later to the central and southern parts of the country, with October weather remaining in the low to mid 70's. Expect nighttime temperatures in the low 50's.

SUGGEST SUGGESTED ITEMS TO PACK

The Italian suggestion "dress like an onion" is the perfect guideline when dressing for fall in Italy. Think layers; easy ones to peel off when it is too hot and to reapply when the weather turns chilly.

Women will want to bring camisoles and short sleeves to wear under long-sleeved shirts and light sweaters. Men should think of wearing an undershirt in addition to a long-sleeved outer layer.

The dress code for most events is proper business attire for both men and women. You'll never know who you'll be meeting, and first impressions last forever. Men, this means a business jacket and sometimes a tie.

Leave the flip-flops at home for all official outings!

Getting caught in the rain is an unavoidable reality of Italian autumns but it doesn't mean that you have to miss out on your sites to see for the day. Some rain gear and a light-medium rain jacket is worth the luggage space. You can also always resort to the street vendors and their colorful two-Euro umbrellas to shield you for the day.
